

Wire Transfer Instructions for Shares of Stock¹

Step One

Determine whether your gift will benefit the educational programs of the HRC Foundation or the political work of the Human Rights Campaign. Gifts to the Human Rights Campaign are not tax deductible. Gifts to the Human Rights Campaign Foundation are tax deductible.

Step Two

Please instruct your broker to wire transfer your gift of securities to: Andrew J. Kahrer Merrill Lynch (202) 659-7510

Human Rights Campaign Foundation Account: 798-04080 DTC: 8862 Human Rights Campaign Account: 798-04263 DTC: 8862

Step Three

In order to acknowledge your generosity in support of the HRC or the HRC Foundation, please contact Tim Bahr and tell him the number of shares and the name of the stock that you are transferring.

Tim Bahr
Director of Major Gifts	e-mail:	Tim.Bahr@hrc.org
1640 Rhode Island Avenue NW	voice:	(202) 716-1634
Washington DC 20036	facsimile:	(202) 216-1572

The value of your gift is determined by calculating the average between the high and low stock values on the date the transfer is received, multiplied by the number of shares.

 $^{^1}$ these instructions are only for transferring shares of stock held by a broker. To transfer mutual funds or any other security, please contact the office of estate planning.